SEC NOTEBOOK

ALABAMA: The University of Alabama had a school-record four players selected in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Alabama set a new A-Day attendance record with 92,310 which led the country this year (previous mark was 92,138 in 2007). The newest addition to the Walk of Champions plaza outside Bryant-Denny Stadium was officially unveiled prior to kickoff as the Nick Saban statue joined those of Wallace Wade, Frank Thomas, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Gene Stallings. In addition, plaques honoring players and staff members from each of the national title teams were displayed. Coach Stallings was on hand for the event along with the current team and members of the 2009 NC team, including team captains Javier Arenas, Rolando McClain and Mike Johnson.

ARKANSAS: Head coach Bobby Petrino returns for his fourth season in Fayetteville after taking the Razorbacks to their first BCS game, the Allstate Sugar Bowl, in 2010. He became the first coach to take two schools (Louisville, 2006) to their first BCS game and one of just three coaches to lead two different schools to a BCS game. Arkansas' coaching staff was the only one in the SEC, and one of just two from 2011 BCS game participants, that did not have any changes following the 2010 season. The Razorbacks were ranked in every AP poll in 2010, starting at 17th in the preseason poll and concluding at 12th, the team's highest final ranking since 1988, to mark the first time since 1989 UA went through an entire season inside the top 25. The 16-week ranked streak is tied for the third-longest current streak in the SEC and is the seventh-longest streak in program history. It also is the longest for the Razorbacks since they were ranked in 25 straight polls from 1988-90. Arkansas' leaders in each of the following categories from the 2010 season are expected to return to the 2011 squad: rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, all-purpose yards, scoring, touchdowns scored, punt return yards, kick return yards, field goals made, punting, tackles, tackles for loss, sacks, quarterback hurries, interceptions, fumble recoveries, forced fumbles, blocked field goals, blocked punts and safeties. Arkansas returns players that accounted for 100 percent of its rushing and 84 percent of its receiving during the 2010 season

AUBURN: Auburn had a crowd of more than 53,000 at its annual spring game, which was played on April 16. The defense defeated the offense, 63-32, using a scoring system devised by the Auburn coaches. MVPs at Auburn's A-Day game included TE Philip Lutzenkirchen (Offense), DE Dee Ford (Defense) and K Chandler Brooks (K). Auburn has two quarterbacks who battled to replace Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton at quarterback, with junior Barrett Trotter and sophomore Clint Moseley still in the mix. Auburn is replacing four starters on the offensive line. Spring starters included tackles Brandon Mosley and A.J. Greene, guards John Sullen and Jared Cooper and center Blake Burgess. Junior Anthony Morgan, who has split time on offense and defense during his career, was moved to running back permanently to provide depth behind Michael Dyer and Onterio McCalebb, who were the only scholarship tailbacks on the spring roster. Senior Neiko Thorpe, who has started for two years at cornerback, was moved to safety. Auburn is replacing three starters on the defensive line, and had a starting unit that included four sophomores (ends Nosa Eguae and Corey Lemonier and tackles Jeffrey.

FLORIDA: Florida's new coaching staff, which features first-year head coach Will Muschamp and has 35 years of NFL experience and 5 Super Bowl Rings, conducted their first spring drills in Gainesville. UF ran a pro-style set offense and will have multiple defensive fronts. UF drew over 50,000 fans for the annual Orange & Blue Debut for the 4th year in a row and also unveiled statues of its three Heisman Trophy winners (Steve Spurrier, Danny Wuerffel, Tim Tebow) at halftime of the game. Florida had 13 players miss all or part of spring practice with injuries, including five on the offensive line. Senior running back Jeff Demps also missed spring drills, but he led the UF's Men's Indoor Track and Field Team to their second-straight national title. He now has 7 national titles to his name as a student-athlete at Florida (2-NCAA Indoor Track team titles, 2-60m Indoor titles, 100m Outdoor title, 4x100m Outdoor title, 2008 BCS National Championship). UF is short on experience on the offensive and defensive lines. There are 5 upperclassmen among the 11 scholarship players on the offensive line. There are 12 scholarship players on the defensive line, but only 5 upperclassmen. UF will be replacing 4 starters from the offensive line and 2 starters Overall, UF returns 7 starters on offense and 5 starters on defense. Trey Burton moved from quarterback to fullback/H-back and will line up in multiple spots on the field.

GEORGIA: Georgia has two new assistants on staff that made their debut during spring drills, offensive line coach Will Friend and inside linebackers coach Kurt Olivadotti. Friend played at Alabama (1993-96) and was a graduate assistant at Georgia (2003-04). Olivadotti arrives from the Washington Redskins (2000-10) and is very adept at teaching the 3-4 defense. Georgia opens the 2011 season in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game Sept. 3 at the Georgia Dome against Boise State. Kickoff is set for 8 p.m., and will be nationally televised by ESPN. Georgia returns a trio of senior specialists that are among the best in the country. All-American/Academic All-American punter Drew Butler, All-SEC placekicker Blair Walsh and school record holder kickoff returner/cornerback Brandon Boykin. Junior linebacker Christian Robinson and junior safety Bacarri Rambo are the Bulldogs' top returning tacklers. Rambo had 82 stops while Robinson finished with 46. Georgia lost its leading tackler with the graduation of Akeem Dent (126 tackles) and the SEC's leader in sacks in Justin Houston who had 10.

KENTUCKY: The major change of the spring came on defense as new co-defensive coordinator Rick Minter added a 3-4 look to the existing 4-3 system. The emphasis is to create more turnovers and negative-yardage plays and the Wildcats seemed to make progress in those areas. Kentucky returns its top 11 tacklers from last season although several players moved to new or adjusted positions in the spring in order to best fit the new defensive scheme. Strong safety Winston Guy, a second-team All-SEC pick last season, is now playing a hybrid safety/linebacker position that often moves him close to the line of scrimmage. Martavius Neloms, a starter at cornerback last season, moved to free safety in the spring. Junior-to-be Morgan Newton established himself as the starting quarterback. He completed 23 of 44 passes for 256 yards and three touchdowns in the Blue/White Game and his totals would have been significantly higher if not for some dropped passes. In his first two seasons, Newton completed 56 percent of his passes for 971 yards and six touchdowns. Punter Ryan Tydlacka had a terrific spring. Tydlacka punted four times for a 55.5-yard average in the Blue/White Game. He has improved his average each year, posting a 43.8-yard average last season, and appears poised for a strong senior season.

LSU: LSU QB Jordan Jefferson solidified his role as the starter for the Tigers during the spring. Jefferson, who has a chance to become the first quarterback in school history to start four bowl games, goes into 2011 with a 20-7 record as a starter. In addition to Jefferson, senior Jarrett Lee and sophomore junior college transfer Zach Mettenberger fill out the depth chart at quarterback. Lee owns a 5-4 record as a starter for the Tigers. With the loss of 1,000-yard rusher Stevan Ridley from 2010, a trio of sophomores shared running back duties during the spring. The list includes Michael Ford, Spencer Ware, and Alfred Blue. Spencer Ware also spent time with the LSU baseball team during the spring. Ware has started several games in the outfield for the nationally-ranked Tigers. LSU welcomed new offensive coordinator Steve Kragthorpe to the field for the first time during the spring. Kragthorpe, who replaced Gary Crowton, is one of two LSU assistants with head coaching experience for the Tigers, the other being secondary coach Ron Cooper. Cooper and Kragthorpe are both former head coaches at Louisville. Russell Shepard moved to wide receiver full time during the spring and had his best spring with the Tigers. Shepard joins junior Rueben Randle as returning starters at the position. LSU returns eight players on the offensive line who have started at least one game in their career.

OLE MISS: Senior RB Brandon Bolden was named the Most Outstanding Offensive Player of spring drills. The 2010 All-SEC honoree enters 2011 ranked second in school history in both TDs scored (28) and rushing TDs (23), seventh in rushing yards (2,132) and eighth in all-purpose yards (3,962). Bolden headlines a talented running attack which includes senior Enrique Davis and sophomore Jeff Scott. Senior DE Kentrell Lockett has been granted a sixth year by the NCAA and is eligible for the 2011 season. The two-year starter was a popular preseason All-SEC pick a year ago and boasts 22.5 career TFLs and 8.0 sacks. Senior OT Bradley Sowell was honored in the spring for being the most dedicated and courageous rising senior lineman. The 2010 All-SEC honoree joins with fellow tackle Bobby Massie to anchor a deep offensive line that includes seven players that each started two or more games on the line last year. Junior LB D.T. Shackelford suffered a torn right ACL during the final week of spring practice, and the anticipated recovery time is six to eight months. He was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player of the spring and received the 2011 Chucky Mullins Courage Award. The Rebels' 2011 quarterback race will remain open entering the preseason with juniors Randall Mackey and Zack Stoudt and sophomore Barry Brunetti, who was granted eligibility for 2011 by the NCAA. Junior Nathan Stanley announced during the fiSpecial teams play will be a strength of the Rebels again in 2011, led by NCAA punting champion and All-SEC junior Tyler Campbell. Junior Andrew Ritter continues to excel on kickoffs, while junior Bryson Rose is coming off a solid first season as the starting place-kicker, finishing third in the SEC in field goals made.

MISSISSIPPI STATE: After a breakout season a year ago, quarterback Chris Relf looks poised for 2011 after a solid spring. In limited action during the Maroon and White game, Relf completed four of eight passes for 68 yards and rushed once for a 1-yard touchdown. After the departure of three starting linebackers last season, Mississippi State spent time this spring looking for players to fill the void. Junior Cameron Lawrence and sophomore Chris Hughes saw playing time at LB last season. On the defensive front, Fletcher Cox, Josh Boyd and Sean Ferguson return. The three of them helped lead State to the 15th best defense against the run and combined for 19 tackles for loss in 2010. In the secondary, the Bulldogs only lost one letterwinner from 2010 and return five players that started. Johnthan Banks, Charles Mitchell, Nickoe Whitley and Corey Broomfield are currently listed as starters, and Wade Bonner began the last two games at safety. The Bulldog offense returns its top nine rushers, top six receivers, all quarterbacks and players that accounted for 46 of the team's 48 touchdowns last season. Senior running back Vick Ballard, who set a school record with 19 rushing touchdowns in 2010, returns after a stellar junior campaign where he rushed for 968 yards. Sophomore LaDarius Perkins also returns after 566 yards on the ground and three touchdowns in 2010. The lone new face on staff is Geoff Collins, who takes over as Co-Defensive Coordinator/linebackers coach. He joins the staff from Florida International.

SOUTH CAROLINA: Junior cornerback Stephon Gilmore, one of only six players to earn first-team All-SEC honors and also earn a spot on the 2010 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll, was the Harris Pastides Scholar-Athlete Award winner in the spring. Gilmore was also named to the preseason Lott Trophy Watch List. The Joe Morrison Player of the Spring award winners were wide receiver DeAngelo Smith on offense and safety D.J. Swearingin on defense. The Gamecocks welcomed the return of linebacker Shaq Wilson to the practice fields. Wilson, the team's leading tackler in 2009, missed all but one game in 2010 with a hamstring injury and received a medical redshirt. He is slated to be the starter at the "Mike" linebacker spot when fall camp opens. Head coach Steve Spurrier welcomed one new member to his coaching staff, with John Butler taking over as the special teams coordinator, replacing Shane Beamer. Butler was most recently at the University of Minnesota. The Gamecocks need to replace special teams standout Spencer Lanning, who handled both the punting and placekicking chores in each of the past two seasons. Senior Jay Wooten is the top candidate to handle the placements in the fall, while redshirt freshman Patrick Fish and senior Joey Scribner-Howard figure to battle it out for the starting punting duties.

TENNESSEE: The Harvey Robinson and Andy Spiva awards honor the offensive and defensive surprise of the spring, respectively. Sophomore center Alex Bullard, a transfer from Notre Dame, claimed the Harvey Robinson Award, while defensive tackle Daniel Hood was the recipient of the Andy Spiva Award. Hood is new to the defensive line after spending his freshman season as an offensive lineman. Junior defensive back Prentiss Waggoner was named a preseason candidate for the 2011 Lott IMPACT Trophy Award, which honors the top collegiate defensive player in the nation. Mid-term enrollees defensive back Justin Coleman and Marcus Jackson made an impact this spring and are listed as potential starters at their respective positions. Coleman is listed at right cornerback, while Jackson is listed as left guard. Sophomore nose tackle Daniel Hood finished the spring atop the depth chart after moving to the defensive line at the beginning. During the final week of spring practice, sophomore defensive end Jacques Smith suffered a fractured metatarsal in his right foot. Smith is expected to be ready to participate in summer workouts when they begin in June. A native of Ooltewah, Smith played in all 13 games as a freshman in 2010, recording 24 tackles, two sacks, and five tackles for loss while earning Freshman All-SEC honors. Junior linebacker Herman Lathers underwent successful right shoulder surgery in January and missed spring practice. Lathers is expected to return for summer workouts and be ready to participate without restrictions when fall camp begins. The Baton Rouge, La., native is UT's leading returning tackler, after recording 75 stops in 2010.

VANDERBILT: James Franklin guided his first spring practice as Vanderbilt's head coach of the Commodores. The former University of Maryland assistant head coach and offensive coordinator became the 27th head coach in Commodore history when he was named to replace Robbie Caldwell on Dec. 17, 2010. Franklin's coaching staff included eight new arrivals on campus and one holdover from the previous staff, offensive line mentor Herb Hand. Former Maryland coach John Donovan and William & Mary coach Bob Shoop were named offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. With Franklin's direction, the new staff installed new offensive and defensive systems during Spring Practice. Franklin's initial Spring Practice on campus was highlighted by the renewal of the Black & Gold intrasquad game, captured by Team Black 19-7 on April 17. It marked the team's first true spring game since the mid-1990s. Seventeen position starters from a year ago participated during Vanderbilt's spring practice. Despite the high number of returnees, Franklin did not name starters at the end of spring drills, aiming to produce greater competition when camp opens in early August. Two-year starting quarterback Larry Smith (R-Sr., Prattville, Ala.) displayed improved throwing accuracy and accepted a greater leadership role under the coaching of quarterback coach Ricky Rahne. Smith connected on 16 of 26 passes for 233 yards and a touchdown in the spring game. With two-year All-SEC performer Chris Marve the only returning starter at linebacker, the staff saw improvement from several prospects at the vacant outside slots.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

"THE STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE"

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 78-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2010-11 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured five national titles and three national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in baseball, football and men's indoor track & field. Since 1990, the SEC has won 140 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

Auburn won the SEC's first national title of the year with its win in the BCS National Championship Game in football. It is the SEC's fifth consecutive football national title. Florida won its second consecutive national title in men's indoor track & field while the Gators' women's tennis team also captured the national championship. Alabama won its fifth gymnastics national title and South Carolina won its second consecutive national championship in baseball. Florida finished first among Southeastern Conference schools and fourth overall in the Director's Cup final standings.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in eight of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 14 of the 20 sports. Ten SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Auburn, LSU, Mississippi State, Alabama and Florida winning the BCS National Title Game, Cotton, Gator, Capital One and Outback bowls, respectively. Five men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and four women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament. The SEC had seven teams advance to postseason play in baseball, hosting three regionals with South Carolina, Florida and Vanderbilt advancing to the College World Series. With 139 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the four team championships, 39 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 367 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-America Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with more than 2,300 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, nine SEC schools placed in the top 40 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a fourth place finish. LSU placed 19th while Georgia was 20th; Tennessee finished 22nd, Arkansas 24th, Alabama 25th, Auburn 31st, Kentucky 36th and South Carolina 39th to round out the league's top-40 finishes.

[NOTE: NCAA National Champions only with the exception of football.]

THIS IS THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference sponsors championships in 20 sports – 11 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

- The Southeastern Conference had 22 of its intercollegiate sport programs earn NCAA Public Recognition Awards for academic success.
- In the 2009-10 academic year, a total of 2,425 student-athletes around the league earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition, an all-time high.
- In the 2009-10 academic year, the SEC had 15 of its student-athletes earn first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America status, more than any other Division I conference in the nation. The SEC had 36 total student-athletes earn either first, second or third team mention. The total was second in the nation.
- During the last seven years, the SEC has had more student-athletes honored as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans than any other conference. The league has had 288 student-athletes named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including 124 named to the first-team.
- Since 2000, the SEC has had 19 winners of the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award, which is given annually to eight outstanding senior student-athletes. Since 2004, the SEC has had 10 student-athletes awarded this honor, more than any other conference.
- The SEC also had 13 student-athletes receive NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2009-10, more than any other conference in the nation.
- In 2009-10, the SEC, in a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championships and rankings, placed first in both men's and women's sports. The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in 10 men's and 11 women's sports and poll rankings in football.
- The SEC and its corporate partners host youth clinics each year in conjunction with several conference events, including the football championship game, the men's and women's basketball tournaments and the baseball tournament. These clinics provide children from host cities the opportunity to receive instruction from SEC and other area coaches.

- In 1992, the SEC became the first conference in the nation to assemble a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Two representatives from each of the SEC member schools are selected to serve on the committee, which meets twice a year to discuss issues of concern to the student-athlete.
- For the fourth year, the SEC SAAC has coordinated the "Together We CAN" food drive at all 12 SEC institutions. During a two-week period in September, at athletic events on campus, student-athletes seek donations for food that will be delivered to local food banks and area charities. In 2009, the food drive garnered 42,500 pounds of food and donations.
- The SEC conducts a New Coaches Orientation three times per year, which supplements institutional orientation programs and enhances the professional development of coaches. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.
- The SEC has created an annual Sportsmanship Award that will be awarded to one male and one female student-athlete during the 2007-08 academic year. Voted on by the league's athletics directors, the award honors student-athletes who, through their actions in the competitive arena of intercollegiate athletics, have demonstrated one or more of the ideals of sportsmanship, including fairness, civility, honesty, unselfishness, respect and responsibility.
- The SEC selects a Community Service Team in all of its sports. The Community Service Team features a representative from each institution who has shown a commitment to community service.
- Since implementation of the Graduation Success Rate, there has been a general trend of improvement in the Graduation Success Rate of student-athletes in the SEC. NCAA research indicates the student body graduates at a GSR comparable rate of 60%, which is exceeded by 90% of teams within the SEC.

SEC ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM

The member institutions of the Southeastern Conference, with a tradition of excellence in intercollegiate athletics, joined forces in 2005 to form the SEC Academic Consortium (SECAC). The SECAC is being relocated to SEC Headquarters summer of 2011.

"Under the direction of our Presidents and Chancellors, we are moving into the second phase of the conference's Academic Consortium," said SEC and University of Florida President Dr. Bernie Machen. "The SECAC will now move forward with a renewed vision for supporting the academic mission of the SEC's 12 universities."

Created by the league's Presidents, Chancellors and Provosts, the SECAC was established to provide a collaborative structure in which the 12 universities can promote learning, scholarship and academic achievement.

"This organization will provide an opportunity for our schools to work together to enhance and share academic resources," SEC Commissioner Mike Slive said. "This consortium will operate parallel to, but separate from, the athletic side of the conference."

SECAC's core mission is to advance academic excellence through collaboration of SEC universities. The Consortium has focused on establishing and operating an Academic Leadership Development Program, enhancing coordinated Study Abroad Programs, engaging campus admissions offices in cooperative student recruiting efforts outside the geographic footprint of the SEC, and building collaboration among academic deans and department heads. Since its inception in 2005, the Academic Consortium has been headquartered on the University of Arkansas campus.

The Consortium will continue to support existing programs under a new vision established by the SEC Presidents and Chancellors, which shall also include the following new initiatives:

- Initiation of an academic conference featuring distinguished faculty from across the SEC and the nation presenting and discussing areas of research and scholarly topics; and
- Implementation of an Outstanding Faculty Achievement Award to recognize meritorious academic accomplishments from those within the SEC.

SEC MISSION STATEMENT

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

From his early days as an athletic administrator to his current post as commissioner, Mike Slive has maintained an integral role in the ever-changing world of intercollegiate athletics. He was named the seventh commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on July 2, 2002. In March 2009, the SEC Presidents and Chancellors announced a contract extension for Slive through July 31, 2012.

In more than 40 years of legal and athletic administrative experience, Slive has made a major impact on many different levels of intercollegiate athletics. He was a founding Commissioner of two conferences, founder of law firm which assisted NCAA institutions in compliance matters, served as Director of Athletics and handled financial aid for student-athletes during his first college sports position.

The SEC is in the third academic year of the SEC's landmark 15-year agreements with CBS and ESPN. The agreements make the league the most widely distributed conference on television in the nation. These arrangements also secure the financial health of the SEC and its member institutions for years to come.

Since Slive's arrival at the SEC in 2002, he has developed initiatives designed to maintain and improve the SEC's position as one of the top intercollegiate athletic conferences in the nation, both on and off the fields of play. These include:

- The SEC Task Force on Compliance and Enforcement issued its first report at the 2004 SEC Spring Meetings. The task force developed policies and procedures to assist league schools in NCAA and SEC compliance and enforcement matters.

- The SEC Academic Consortium was created in 2005 to increase academic cooperation across the league by linking the resources of the 12 member institutions.
- The SEC annually distributes a database of names and biographies of every minority head and assistant football coach on the Division I level to every one of its schools and every conference in Division I.
- The SEC has initiated policies and procedures designed to foster sportsmanship and preventing inappropriate fan behavior.
- This will mark the fifth year of the men's basketball SEC-Big East Invitational. This year, all 12 SEC teams will participate against Big East teams, during a three-day period (Dec. 1-3).

"I am honored to serve as the Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference," said Slive. "We have accomplished many of our goals since my arrival in 2002. The SEC is a leader in intercollegiate athletics, meeting today's challenges and setting the course for the future. I look forward to continuing the course we have set to make the SEC the nation's top intercollegiate athletic conference."

SEC HEADQUARTERS

Almost 33 years after moving to Birmingham from Jackson, Miss., The SEC moved into its current headquarters on October 15, 1991.

The building is now named for Roy F. Kramer, the SEC's sixth commissioner who retired in July 2002. During his tenure as the league's commissioner, the SEC won 85 national championships and distributed more than $654 million in revenue back to its member institutions.

The 30,000 square-foot building was provided by the city of Birmingham. It was designed to house the SEC staff and accommodate the needs of the various committees, coaches and administrative groups that meet on a regular basis.

From its headquarters, the SEC office certifies the eligibility of all student-athletes, manages championship events, enhances academic opportunities for student-athletes, monitors NCAA and SEC compliance, coordinates officiation assignments, negotiates television contracts, distributes conference revenue, cultivates corporate sponsorships and coordinates media and public relations efforts.

In 2005, a state-of-the-art video command center was built inside the headquarters and named for the late Brad Davis, the SEC Associate Commissioner who was responsible for its development. Davis passed away on March 2, 2006.

The building also features a rotunda that highlights school banners, championship pedestals and two galleries displaying the member institutions.

CORPORATE SPONSOR PROGRAM

The Southeastern Conference corporate sponsor program began in 1988 with three companies dedicated to intercollegiate athletics and higher education.

Now supported by many of the nation's top corporations, this program has evolved into the most successful of its kind.

Each member of the SEC corporate marketing team shows its commitment to the future of intercollegiate athletics with contributions to SEC Youth Clinics, SEC Scholarship Programs and SEC Academic Enhancement Programs.

The corporations also conduct consumer promotions designed to increase sales and brand awareness. These promotions also increase public awareness of the member institutions of the SEC, which in turn supports increased ticket sales and high television and radio ratings.

In addition to the broad spectrum of benefits provided by these contributions, each SEC institution is a direct beneficiary of the program.

SEC Corporate Champions include Allstate Insurance, AT&T, Dr Pepper and Regions Bank, and current SEC Corporate Sponsors are Aaron's Sales and Leasing, Dick's Sporting Goods, Gatorade, Golden Flake Snack Foods, Iron Planet Motors, Macy's, Mascot Wear, Merita Breads, Sirius-XM Radio, Sonic Drive-In, Texas Pete and UPS.

PROGRAM MISSION

The mission of the corporate sponsor program is:

1. To develop marketing and promotional activities that benefit the SEC, its member institutions and the participating corporations;
2. To emphasize the positive role of athletics in our society; and
3. To provide funding for youth clinics, championship events and academic enhancement programs.

SEC LICENSING PROGRAM

The Southeastern Conference markets its registered marks (Southeastern Conference, SEC, SEC Seal and SEC logos) through a licensing program with the Collegiate Licensing Company. The SEC began its licensing program in 1988 to protect the use of its name and insignias and to ensure that its member institutions benefit from the use and sale of items bearing its name and/or logos.

The program also ensures that manufacturers and retailers market only the highest-quality merchandise using the conference name and logos. The SEC has joined a consortium of universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially-licensed collegiate products.

SEC TELEVISION AGREEMENTS

CBS SPORTS

On August 14, 2008, CBS Sports and the SEC announced a historic 15-year contract extension to broadcast Southeastern Conference football and basketball games.

In the new agreement, beginning with the 2009-10 season, CBS Sports continues to be the exclusive national network broadcaster of SEC home football games, including the SEC Championship Game. CBS Sports will showcase the top conference matchups each week of the package with the "SEC Game of the Week." The agreement also includes a prime time game and doubleheader opportunities. In addition, CBS Sports continues its coverage of SEC regular-season basketball.

"This landmark deal allows THE SEC ON CBS to continue to be a cornerstone of our fall programming for many years to come," said Sean McManus, President, CBS News and Sports. "The agreement provides CBS Sports with the opportunity to showcase the excitement, pageantry and rich traditions of the SEC across all CBS platforms. We are thrilled to continue our long-standing relationship with one of the premiere conferences in the nation."

"The Southeastern Conference is proud to continue its association with CBS Sports," said Dr. Lee Todd, President of the University of Kentucky and the Southeastern Conference. "This national network agreement provides a unique platform to share both the athletic and academic achievements of the 12 member institutions."

"The SEC is the gold standard in college athletics, and we are proud to be associated with this great conference and its outstanding administrators, coaches and student-athletes," said Mike Aresco, Executive Vice President, Programming, CBS Sports. "The length of this deal is a testament to the great brand that THE SEC ON CBS has become."

"The Southeastern Conference is extremely pleased to extend its long-standing relationship with CBS Sports," added Mike Slive. "THE SEC ON CBS enables the conference to continue its unique full, national network exposure. We have enjoyed working with CBS Sports over the past 13 years and we are excited about our long-term future."

In addition to the broadcast rights on CBS Sports, this comprehensive long-team deal includes certain digital, internet, wireless, Video-on-Demand, data and enhanced highlight rights across all CBS platforms, including CBS College Sports Network and CBSSports.com. Also, simulcasts of CBS Sports games will be available for distribution by the CBS College Sports Network.

ESPN

On August 25, 2008, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference announced a milestone 15-year agreement beginning in 2009-10 and continuing through 2023-24. The landmark deal — the longest national rights agreement in ESPN history — will result in ESPN entities (ESPN, ESPN on ABC, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN Regional Television, ESPN360.com, ESPN Mobile TV, ESPN GamePlan, ESPN FULL COURT, ESPN International, ESPN Deportes, ESPN Classic) carrying more than 5,500 SEC events — including football, men's and women's basketball, Olympic sports and SEC Championships.

"The SEC delivers tremendous quality and depth and a devoted, widespread fan base," ESPN, Inc. and ABC Sports President George Bodenheimer said. "This historic deal will offer fans more SEC access than ever before through every form of media that exists today or may be developed during the life of this long-term arrangement. We applaud the leadership of the conference as well as these great academic and athletic institutions for supporting this groundbreaking collaboration."

"The Southeastern Conference has embodied excellence for 75 years and during the last 26 years, ESPN has carried the stories of our 12 member institutions throughout the nation and the world," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "With this landmark agreement, ESPN and its platforms will continue to showcase the SEC with more games and original SEC-dedicated content than ever before. The SEC is looking forward to continuing its relationship with ESPN as we move into our next 75 years."

"The Southeastern Conference is pleased to extend its relationship with ESPN and its wide-ranging outlets in this milestone agreement," said Dr. Lee Todd, President of the University of Kentucky and the Southeastern Conference. "This contract represents an innovative and revolutionary direction for the SEC that will showcase our conference in a variety of means both academically and athletically."

ESPN has televised the SEC since 1982. All national programming will fall under the branding "SEC on ESPN." As part of the agreement:

- ESPN and ESPN2 will continue to offer premier SEC games, including Saturday night and two primetime Thursday football games, triple the basketball offerings with three nights (two new) of men's basketball and present SEC Championships in women's basketball, baseball, softball and gymnastics.
- ESPN Regional Television will become the new over-the-air syndication home for SEC football and basketball games. In addition, ESPN and the SEC will work together to offer multi-sport packages (including football, men's and women's basketball, Olympic sports and conference championships) of SEC content for regional cable syndication.
- ESPNU will now offer exclusive SEC telecasts, including football and basketball and selected conference championships. In addition, the network will present a weekly, hour-long program on SEC sports throughout the academic year as well as sport-by-sport previews, reviews and specials.
- The semifinals and championship of the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament will be televised nationally for the first time on ESPN on ABC.
- All SEC championship games except football will be aired on either ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN on ABC, ESPNU or ESPN Classic.
- The agreement will also showcase the academic successes of SEC student-athletes by including twice-annual programs dedicated to academic accomplishments of SEC student-athletes; an annual Campus Connection (students take part in the production) telecast at each SEC institution; a weekly segment on an SEC show featuring academics; and an online SEC Academic Network utilizing ESPN360.com technology.

- Extensive coverage of women's basketball and Olympic sports will be offered nationally through ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU and regionally through ESPN Regional Television, including both regular-season and conference championships.
- Comprehensive multimedia rights are also an integral part of the agreement as live SEC action, including football and basketball, will be offered via simulcasts on ESPN360.com and ESPN Mobile TV and extensive content rights have been granted to ESPN.com.
- ESPN International, ESPN GamePlan, ESPN FULL COURT, ESPN Classic and ESPN Deportes will also feature the SEC.
- Each SEC institution retains the right to continue a local multi-media rights package.

SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

The Southeastern Conference, following the rules set forth by the NCAA Football Rules Committee, will utilize video replay for the 2009 football season. The following is the NCAA Rules on instant replay.

Section 1. Definition

Article 1. Instant Replay is a system utilizing electronic means to review and assist game officials with certain on-field decisions as listed in Section 3.

Section 2. Eligibility for Instant Replay

Article 1.

- Any member institution may use instant replay. This rule is permissive, not a requirement. If instant replay is used, it must be used in full compliance with this rule.
- For any non-conference game, if the home team is using instant replay, the visiting team does not have the option of declining its use for that game. If the home team is not using instant replay, the visiting team does not have the option of requesting that it be used in that game.

Section 3. Reviewable Plays

Article 1. Reviewable plays governed by a sideline, goal line or an end line include:

- Scoring plays, including a runner in possession of a live ball breaking the plane of a goal line. This includes field goal attempts only if the ball is ruled (a) below or above the crossbar or (b) inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights. If the ball is higher than the top of the uprights, the ruling may not be reviewed.
- A pass ruled complete, incomplete or intercepted at a side line, goal line or an end line.
- A runner or pass receiver ruled in or out of bounds.
- Recovery of a loose ball in or out of bounds in the field of play or an end zone.

Article 2. Reviewable plays involving passes include:

- A pass ruled complete, incomplete or intercepted anywhere in the field of play or an end zone.
- A legal forward pass touched by an ineligible receiver.
- A legal forward pass touched by a defensive player.
- A fumble ruled on the part of a potential passer. (Note: If the on-field ruling is forward pass and the pass is incomplete, the play is not reviewable).
- A forward pass or forward handing ruled when a runner is beyond the line of scrimmage.
- A forward pass or forward handing ruled after a change of possession.
- A pass ruled forward or backward when thrown from behind the line of scrimmage. (Exception: If the pass is ruled forward and is incomplete, the play is not reviewable).

Article 3. Miscellaneous reviewable plays include:

- A runner judged to have been not down by rule.
- A ball carrier judged to have been down by rule when the recovery of a fumble by an opponent or teammate occurs in the immediate action following the fumble and is prior to any official signaling that the ball is dead.
- A ball carrier judged to have been out of bounds when his immediate action takes him into the opponent's end zone and is prior to any official signaling that the ball is dead.
- A runner's forward progress with respect to a first down.
- Touching of any type kick by any player.
- The number of players participating by either team during a live ball.

- A scrimmage kicker beyond the line of scrimmage when the ball is kicked.
- Clock adjustment when a ruling on the field is reversed. The Replay Official may correct an egregious game-clock error.
- A fumble recovery by a Team A player during fourth down or a try and before any change of possession.
- A muffed or fumbled kick.
- An incorrect down number.
- Bench interference.

Article 4. No other plays or officiating decisions are reviewable. However, the Replay Official may correct egregious errors. This excludes fouls that are not specifically reviewable (Reviewable fouls: Rules 12-3-2-e, f and 12-3-3-f, g).

Section 4. Instant Replay Personnel, Equipment and Location

Article 1. Instant replay personnel shall consist of the number of persons needed to operate the replay equipment within the necessary time constraints. A minimum of three persons shall be utilized to insure that all plays are reviewed in an efficient and a timely manner. Such persons are normally referred to as replay official, communicator and technician. Additional persons may be used as needed.

Article 2. The type of equipment used to carry out necessary instant replay duties shall be determined by each conference or member institution utilizing instant replay.

Article 3.

- All equipment used in making a decision during the replay process and the personnel using that equipment shall be located in a separate, secure location in the press box. This room shall not be available or accessible to any person not directly involved in instant replay.
- Additional telephonic equipment needed to allow instant replay personnel to communicate with the game referee when a game has been stopped for a play review shall be located on a side line near the field of play and preferably outside a team area. Such equipment shall provide the game referee and the replay official a secure and private means of communication.

Section 5. Initiating the Replay Process

Article 1. There are two methods to stop a game to review a ruling on the field.

- The replay official and the crew shall review every play of a game. The replay official may stop a game at any time before the ball is next put in play whenever:
 - There is reasonable evidence to believe an error was made in the initial on-field ruling.
 - The play is reviewable.
 - Any reversal of an on-field ruling, which would result from indisputable video evidence, would have a direct, competitive impact on the game.
- The head coach of either team may request that the game be stopped and a play be reviewed by challenging the on-field ruling one time during a game.
 - A coach initiates this challenge by taking a team time out before the ball is next put in play and informing the referee that the coach is challenging the ruling of the previous play. If a head coach's challenge is successful he retains the challenge, which he may use only once more during the game. Thus a coach may have a total of two challenges if and only if his initial challenge is successful.
 - After a review has been completed, if the on-field ruling is reversed, that team's time out will not be charged.

- After a review has been completed and the on-field ruling is not reversed, the charged team time out counts as one of the three permitted that team for that half.
- A head coach may not challenge a ruling in which the game was stopped and a decision has already been made by the replay official.
- If a head coach requests a team time out to challenge an on-field ruling and the play being challenged is not reviewable, the time out shall count as one of the three permitted the team during that half of the game.
- A head coach may not challenge an on-field ruling if all the team's timeouts have been used for that half. If all team timeouts have been used and a head coach signals for, and is granted, a time out, a delay penalty will be assessed.

Article 2. a. A game may be stopped, either by the instant replay official or by a head coach's challenge at any time before the ball is next put in play.

- No game official may request that a game be stopped and a play be reviewed.

Section 6. Reviewing an On-field Ruling

Article 1.

- When a game is to be stopped either by the replay official or by a head coach's challenge, the designated officials on the field will be notified by a buzzer system or other appropriate means.
- The referee shall announce that the ruling on the field is being reviewed. If the game has been stopped due to a head coach's challenge, the referee will so indicate in the announcement.
- All reviews shall be based upon video evidence provided by and coming directly from the televised production of the game. If there is no television available, all video pictures shall come from the in-stadium video board production.
- After the referee has conferred with the replay official and the review process has been completed, the referee shall make one of the following announcements:
 - If the video evidence confirms the on-field ruling: "After review, the ruling on the field is confirmed."
 - If there is no indisputable (conclusive) evidence to reverse the on-field ruling: "After review, the ruling on the field stands."
 - If the on-field ruling is reversed: "After review, the ruling on the field is reversed. Video Evidence confirms that . . . [followed by a brief description of the video evidence], therefore, . . . [followed by a brief description of what the reversal means]."
- If a ruling is reversed, the replay official shall supply the referee with all pertinent data as needed (next down, distance, yard line, position of the ball, clock status/adjustment) in order to resume play under the correct game conditions.

Article 2.

- Although each head coach is limited to one challenge per game, there is no restriction on the number of times the replay official may stop a game to review an on-field ruling.
- If the game is stopped to review a play, there is no time limit for the review process.

Section 7. Reversing an On-Field Ruling

Criterion for Reversal

Article 1. In order to reverse an on-field ruling, the replay official must see indisputable video evidence through one or more video replays provided to the monitor.

SEC DIVISIONS

The 2011 season will mark the the 10th year of a 5-1-2 schedule format. The 5-1-2 format allows for each school to play all five of its division opponents along with one permanent and two rotating non-division opponents each year. An institution will play every conference member four times during a 10-year period and each team will make two visits to every SEC stadium during that period.

From 1992-2002, the SEC had played a 5-2-1 format, which allowed each school to play all five of its division opponents along with two permanent and one rotating non-division opponent each year.

DIVISIONAL REPRESENTATIVE TIE-BREAKER

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative:

All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

A. TWO TEAM TIE

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Records of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
4. Overall record versus non-division teams.
5. Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
6. Record versus common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
7. The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series Standings following the last weekend of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the SEC Championship Game.

B. THREE (OR MORE) TEAM TIE

(Once the tie has been reduced to two teams, go to the two team tie breaker format)

1. Combined head-to-head record among the tied teams.
2. Record of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
4. Overall record versus non-division teams.
5. Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
6. Record versus common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
7. The tied team with the highest ranking in the Bowl Championship Series Standings following the last weekend of regular-season games shall be the divisional representative in the SEC Championship Game, unless the second of the tied teams is ranked within five-or-fewer places of the highest ranked tied team. In this case, the head-to-head results of the top two ranked tied teams shall determine the representative in the SEC Championship Game.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DECEMBER 3, 2011

The SEC's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series. The 20thth-annual title game is set for December 3 and will be nationally televised by CBS Sports.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned a 11.8 rating and a 24 share, the highest rated SEC Championship Game in history.

The SEC Championship Game has also drawn capacity crowds in its short history. 1,416,876 fans have witnessed first-hand the pageantry of SEC Football at the 19 previous Championship Games.

The Championship Game has also drawn 17 capacity crowds in its 19-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

2010 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Cam Newton left nothing to chance. He ran and passed the Auburn Tigers to a shot at the national championship they were denied six years ago, and he might as well start working on that Heisman pose, too.

Newton passed for a career-high 335 yards and four touchdowns, plus ran for a pair of TDs in an MVP performance that led Auburn to the Southeastern Conference championship with a 56-17 rout of Steve Spurrier and South Carolina on Saturday.

The Tigers, who came into the day sitting atop the Bowl Championship Series standings, must wait 24 hours before getting the official word, but it's nothing more than a formality: They'll be playing Oregon for the national title on Jan. 10 in Glendale, Ariz.

Hard to imagine the Heisman vote even being close after the 6-foot-6, 250-pound junior followed Tim Tebow as only the second player in the history of the top division to run AND pass for 20 touchdowns in a season. He slipped away from defenders with his surprising quickness, buying extra time to throw. He broke tackles with his power, not at all shocking given that he outweighed all three of South Carolina's starting linebackers by at least 25 pounds.

Or he just ran right over 'em. Newton guided the Tigers (13-0) to touchdowns on their first three possessions, though South Carolina (9-4) was in the game as halftime approached. Trailing only 21-14, the Gamecocks simply had to knock down Newton's last-gasp pass on the final play before the break.

They couldn't even do that. Newton heaved one up and DeVonte Holloman, standing in front of Terrell Zachery, leaped to tip it away. But the deflected ball went right to Darvin Adams for an improbable 51-yard touchdown that changed the complexion of the game. After South Carolina missed a field goal on the first possession of the second half, it was all Tigers.

The Tigers set an SEC championship game record for scoring and piled up 589 yards. Newton had a hand in 408 of them, breaking his previous best of 317 yards passing against Chattanooga and leading Auburn in rushing with 14 carries for 73 yards. Despite two big drops, Adams set another SEC championship record with 217 yards on seven receptions.

Newton and the Tigers were unstoppable at the beginning of the game, scoring on their first three possessions.

After winning the toss and - no surprise - electing to receive so they could get their offense right on the field, Newton stunned the Gamecocks with a bit of chicanery on the second snap of the game. He looked to his left and pumped like he was going to throw, but held on to the ball. Then he faked a handoff to another player coming around on an apparent reverse. Finally, with South Carolina totally confused, Newton hit Adams in stride on a 62-yard pass.

Two plays later, Newton scrambled away from pressure and hit Onterio McCalebb for a 12-yard score.

Game MVP Cam Newton finished 17-of-28 passing for a career-high 335 yards and four touchdowns. He also rushed 14 times for 73 yards and two touchdowns.

2009 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ALABAMA 32, FLORIDA 13

The No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide won its 22nd Southeastern Conference Championship by beating No. 1 Florida, 32-13 with a balanced attack that gave the Tide its first league title since 1999. Alabama is now 13-0 on the season while the Gators fell to 12-1. It marked the first time in the history of the SEC Championship Game that both teams came in undefeated.

"Our entire team played great. Greg [McElroy] played great. Mark [Ingram] played great. Julio [Jones] played great," Alabama head coach Nick Saban said. "Really, most of the credit goes to our guys up front on the offensive line. This is a great win for our program."

Alabama amassed 490 yards of total offense against a Florida defense that had been limiting its opponents to an average of 230 yards per game this season.

Junior quarterback Greg McElroy, who threw for 239 yards and a touchdown on 12 completions, was named the game's most valuable player.

"It's been such an incredible season," McElroy said. "We started the season here (in the Georgia Dome) with a win and were able to win a championship today. I can't say enough about my offensive line, (and) we have the greatest coaching staff in the country."

Sophomore running back Mark Ingram rushed for 113 yards on 28 carries including three rushing touchdowns. He is now the Tide's all-time single-season rushing leader with 1,542, surpassing Bobby Humphrey's 1986 record of 1,471 and becomes the first Alabama rusher to go over 1,500 yards in a season. His three touchdowns tied an SEC Championship Game record. Ingram also caught two passes for 76 yards.

Sophomore Marquis Maze led the Crimson Tide receivers with five catches for 96 yards.

Sophomore Mark Barron, junior Kareem Jackson and senior Rolando McClain led the Crimson Tide defense with seven, six and five tackles, respectively.

Alabama has now won an SEC title in every decade since winning the league's first title in 1933. The Tide's 22 championships ranks first in SEC history.

1997 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TENNESSEE 30, AUBURN 29

Tennessee defeated Auburn, 30-29, in a game that went down to the line.

Before a Georgia Dome Sporting Event record crowd of 74,896, the Vols came from a 20-7 second quarter deficit to defeat the Tigers on Peyton Manning's 73-yard TD pass to Marcus Nash early in the fourth quarter.

A defensive struggle ensued and the Vols were off to the FedEx Orange Bowl to play for the Bowl Alliance.

The Vols got on the scoreboard first on a 40-yard TD pass from Manning to Peerless Price. However, that was all the scoring Tennessee could muster until a Jeff Hall 27-yard field goal midway through the second quarter.

In the meantime, Auburn accounted for 20 unanswered points, led by a 24-yard fumble return by Brad Ware and a 51-yard TD pass from Dameyune Craig to Tyrone Goodson. AU's Jaret Holmes also hit two field goals.

The two teams traded touchdowns midway through the third quarter. Behind 27-17, UT scored on a 46-yard pass from Manning to Price. On the PAT attempt, Auburn's Quinton Reese returned the blocked kick for a two-point conversion to score.

That set up the heroics on Nash's 73-yard TD reception from Manning and Hall's PAT that won the game for Tennessee.

1995 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME FLORIDA 34, ARKANSAS 3

Florida defeated Western Division Champion Arkansas, 34-3.

The Gators, who went through the regular season undefeated, continued its dominance on this night. Florida outgained the Razorbacks, 396-299, and committed no turnovers, while forcing Arkansas into four giveaways.

Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.

The Gators took the ensuing kickoff and went 80 yards in seven plays, capped off when game MVP Danny Wuerffel connected with Chris Doering on a 22-yard touchdown pass. Florida would never look back.

The SEC's fourth title game attracted a television audience of over 25 million viewers. ABC's broadcast earned a 7.2 rating.

1994 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME FLORIDA 24, ALABAMA 23

Atlanta was the site of the 1994 SEC Football Championship, as a Georgia Dome record 74,751 watched Eastern Division Champion Florida capture its second straight conference crown with a 24-23 victory over Western Division Champion Alabama.

The Gators effectively moved the ball through the air, as Danny Wuerffel connected on 23 of 41 passes for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns. But at the conclusion of the hard-fought contest, it was Florida defensive standout Ellis Johnson who distinguished himself as the game's most valuable player. The rugged senior recorded five tackles, one pass breakup and an SEC Championship record three tackles behind the line of scrimmage, including two quarterback sacks.

Trailing 17-10 at the half, Alabama regained the lead, 23-17, with two third-quarter field goals and an interception return for a touchdown with less than nine minutes to play. Florida responded with an 80-yard, 10-play drive which ended with a two-yard touchdown pass from Wuerffel to Chris Doering with just 5:29 remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point by Judd Davis secured the winning margin, as the Gator defense forced an interception on the final Alabama drive.

The SEC's third title game attracted a television audience of more than 30 million viewers. ABC's broadcast earned a 10.5 rating, marking the network's most-watched college football game since the 1991 season.

1993 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME FLORIDA 28, ALABAMA 13

The SEC staged its second annual Championship Football Game on Dec. 4, 1993, with Eastern Division Champion Florida defeating Western Division winner Alabama, 28-13, in front of a crowd of 76,345 at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Gators were led by quarterback Terry Dean, who passed for 256 yards and two touchdowns en route to Championship Game Most Valuable Player honors. After virtually three quarters of neck-and-neck football, and the Gators leading by one, 14-13, Florida was faced with a fourth-and-eight situation. Punter Shayne Edge kept the drive alive with a 20-yard spring, and on the next play, Dean hit wideout Jack Jackson with a 43-yard strike to give Florida an eight-point cushion. From there, the Florida defense held its ground and the Gators secured the victory.

The victory secured Florida as the host of the USF&G Sugar Bowl. On Jan. 1, 1994, the eight-ranked Gators defeated West Virginia, 41-7, in New Orleans to win their first Sugar Bowl title.

1992 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ALABAMA 28, FLORIDA 21

The Southeastern Conference etched its mark in the college football history books on Dec. 5, 1992. The league became the first in Division I-A to stage a championship game between its two division winners.

Western Division Champion Alabama and Eastern Division co-Champion Florida provided plenty of fireworks as the Crimson Tide posted a 28-21 victory before a capacity crowd of 83,091 at Legion Field in Birmingham.

The game, which was televised nationally by ABC Sports and earned a 9.8 rating, was not decided until the final minutes. With the Gators facing first-and-10 at their own 21, Alabama cornerback Antonio Langham returned an interception 27 yards for the game-winning score. The play, which came with just 3:16 remaining, earned Langham Most Valuable Player honors and thwarted the debut of a tie-breaking system in Division I-A football.

The victory secured Alabama the role of host at the USF&G Sugar Bowl. On Jan. 1, 1993, the second-ranked Crimson Tide handed No. 1 Miami a 34-13 defeat to capture the SEC's 12th national crown.

SEC BOWL HIGHLIGHTS

BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Auburn's 22-19 win over Oregon in the 2011 BCS National Championship Game gave the Southeastern Conference its fifth straight BCS National Championship and its seventh BCS title overall. Auburn is the fifth SEC team to win a BCS National Championship and the fourth different SEC team to win it during the last four seasons. Tennessee won the BCS' first national title in 1998, LSU won the crown in 2003, Florida's claimed the national championship in 2006 and 2008 while LSU took the title in 2007 and Alabama claimed the national title in 2009. The Big 12 has two BCS national titles followed by the ACC, Big Ten, Pac-10 and Big East with one each.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS SINCE 1992

Since SEC expansion in 1992, the SEC has the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with nine. During that time, the SEC has had more teams with national titles than any other conference (5). Here is a breakdown:

SEC - Florida (2008, 2006, 1996), LSU (2003, 2007), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992, 2009), Auburn (2010)

Big 12 - Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)

Big Ten - Ohio State (2002), Michigan (1997)

Pac-10 - Southern California (2004, 2003)

ACC - Florida State (1999, 1993)

Big East - Miami, Fla. (2001)

The SEC was the first conference to claim four consecutive Associated Press (first poll - 1936), National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (first poll - 1959), Football Writers Association of America (first poll - 1954) and USA Today or UPI Coaches Poll (first poll - 1950) national championships.

BOWL GAME APPEARANCES

The schools that currently comprise the SEC have appeared in 389 bowls (including 2010-11). That is by far the most of any conference in the nation. In its history, the SEC is 201-175-13 in post-season bowl games, a 53.3 winning percentage. The SEC has the nation's top bowl winning percentage surpassing the Pac-10 (122-109-6, 52.7 percentage).

SEC TOPS ALL CONFERENCES IN BCS WINS

The SEC is 7-0 in BCS National Championship Games (LSU 2-0, Florida 2-0, Alabama 1-0, Tennessee 1-0, Auburn 1-0). The SEC has the most wins (15) and the highest winning percentage of any conference that has three-or-more appearances in BCS bowl games. The SEC is 15-6 in BCS games (.714 percentage). Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 8-2 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.800) than any other conference. The win total doubles the next highest conference - Pac-10 (4).

LSU capped an 11-win season with a 41-24 win over Texas A&M in the AT&T Cotton Bowl, which saw QB Jordan Jefferson throw for three touchdowns and rush for another.

Mississippi State's resounding 52-14 win over Michigan in the Gator Bowl gave the Bulldogs a Top-15 AP ranking to finish the season. MVP Chris Relf accounted for over 300 yards of offense and four touchdowns.

2011 SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2011 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One will make its pick following the BCS selections. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference.

The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the selection of preference following the Cotton and Outback Bowls, followed by the Gator Bowl with the sixth selection. The Gator Bowl is in its second year to the SEC bowl lineup. The Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl will receive the seventh selection.

The AutoZone Liberty and BBVA Compass Bowls share the eighth and ninth selections and will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Following the 2011 college football regular season, the Bowl Championship Series will determine the National Championship. This season will also mark the sixth year of the BCS National Championship Game, which stands alone from the four traditional BCS bowls but will be hosted by each of the bowls once during a four-year cycle.

The BCS will once again consist of the FedEx Orange, Allstate Sugar, Rose, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

All BCS games will be televised on ESPN for the second straight year in 2012.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

A Division I-A independent team or champion of Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt or Western Athletic conferences will be guaranteed a slot in one of the five BCS games should that team be ranked 12th or higher in the final BCS standings or if a team is ranked in the top 16 and its ranking is higher than that of a champion from a conference that has an automatic berth in one of the BCS bowls. Should two such teams reach this criteria, the BCS will take the highest ranked team in the final BCS standings. Notre Dame will have an automatic berth if it is in the top eight of the final BCS Standings.

At the conclusion of the 2011 regular season, the BCS National Championship Game will be hosted in New Orleans, La., on Jan. 9 at 8:30 p.m. EST. The BCS National Championship Game will have the top two teams ranked in the BCS final regular season standings.

Other BCS games following the 2011 regular season include the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2 at 5 p.m. EST, Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 3 at 8:30 p.m. EST, Discover Orange Bowl on Jan. 4 at 8 p.m. EST and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 5 at 8:30 p.m. EST.

Each host site of a BCS bowl will host the national championship game during the four year cycle. Phoenix hosted the National Championship Game in January 2007, New Orleans hosted in January 2008, Miami hosted in January 2009, Pasadena hosted in January of 2010 and Phoenix again in January 2011 as Auburn defeated Oregon.

2010 SEC FOOTBALL QUICK HITTERS

During the last five years (2006-10), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and, perhaps, in the college football history. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in BCS bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL

SEC IN THE BCS

- The SEC has won five consecutive national championships, seven BCS National Championships and 21 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll).
- Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the BCS crown. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) have each had two schools win titles since 1998.
- Since 2006, half of the slots in the BCS National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (5 of 10). The Big Ten and the Big 12 have two each and the Pac-10 has one.
- No other conference has won a BCS National Championship Game since Texas defeated Southern California, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl following the 2005 regular season. The SEC has won the last five.
- An SEC team has led at the end of 16 of the last 20 quarters of BCS National Championship Game play.

- Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked first in the weekly BCS standings in 18 of the 40 weeks, with four different teams holding the top spot. Florida was first for seven weeks, Alabama for six weeks, Auburn for three and LSU twice. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 13 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for five weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice, Missouri once) and the Pac-10 four weeks (all Oregon).
- The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 11 of its 12 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006 for a total of 192 times. The SEC breakdown: LSU (37), Florida (33), Alabama (27), Auburn (22), Georgia (16), Arkansas (15), Tennessee (14), South Carolina (13), Mississippi State (8), Kentucky (4) and Ole Miss (3).
- Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 8-2 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.800) than any other conference. The win total doubles the next highest conference – Pac-10 (4). Here are the BCS bowl records of all conferences since 2006:

SEC	8-2	.800
Pac-10	4-2	.667
Mountain West	2-1	.667
WAC	2-1	.667
Big East	2-3	.400
Big 12	3-5	.375
Big Ten	3-6	.333
ACC	1-4	.200
Independents	0-1	.000

- The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. – Recipient of the William V. Campbell Trophy, recognizing the scholar-athlete who most fully represents the ideals of The National Football Foundation. The award was presented for the first time at the 1990 Annual Awards Dinner. Since 1990 the trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable academic award in college football. It recognizes the best of both the football world and academic arena and in some circles it has been deemed the "Academic Heisman".

NOTE: Poll was originally compiled and organized by Charles Woodroof, former SEC Assistant Director of Media Relations. The AP (Writers and Broadcasters) Poll began in 1936. From 1936 to 1961 the wire service ranked 20 teams. From 1962 to 1967 only 10 teams were recognized. From 1968 to 1988 AP again resumed its Top 20 before expanding to 25 teams in 1989. Points were awarded based on a team's finish in the final AP poll each year. Points were awarded on a 20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis from 1936 to 1988, and a 25-24-23-22-21-20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis 1989 to the present.
